Tom and Susan Ross Civic Engagement Internship

Tom and Susan Ross, both Greensboro NC natives, are deeply committed to public service and exhibited this commitment beginning early in their lives and careers. Each strongly believes that active participation in community affairs and service to others are vital to the well-being of the community. Scholarships are geared towards those who otherwise would be financially unable to participate in civic engagement activities, and demonstrate a passion and commitment to civic engagement.

Amount of Award
Award is typically in the amount of $1,000 each spring semester for the following summer internship.

Eligibility
Scholarship is available to current undergraduate students who are enrolled in a degree program such as political science, sociology, social work, communication studies, public health education, or human development & family studies at UNCG and have completed at least 60 credit hours, maintains a GPA of 3.0, and have an internship with a minimum duration of 120 hours.

Internship can be for credit or non-credit. Students who are awarded the scholarship are expected to attend a lunch/dinner with donor and CSC representative and write a thank you letter sharing their plans for the internship (letter will be sent to UNCG Career Services Center) before the funds will be released. The Financial Aid Office will officially distribute the awarded funds to the recipient in one installment at the beginning of the semester in which s/he completes the internship. At the conclusion of the internship, recipient will submit a summary of the experience to the Director of the Career Services Center.

Application Process
April 8th Application Period Closes
April 13th Final Candidates Invited for Interview by Selection Committee
April 25th Scholarship Awarded

Application Materials
- Statement of proposed learning objectives approved by a faculty representative
- Letter of application describing career interest and previous community service activities
- Approved resume
- Internship Scholarship Application